Description of problem/work requested: _____

- 1) I understand that it is my responsibility to make backup copies of my data. During the repair process, data and/or programs on my computer may be irretrievably lost. I understand and agree that FIFO Networks is not responsible for any lost documents, e-mails, programs or other data.
- 2) I understand that computers often have more than one problem, and that computer problems are often intermittent, depending on conditions which may not occur during the testing and repair process. The invoice is for repairs actually made. When my computer is returned to me, some undiscovered problems may still exist. If I choose to return the computer for additional service work for these problems, those repairs will be separately billable.
